Description :

PDF-e1f15 | Eager to taste adventure at age 23, Bobbi Wolverton became an international flight attendant in 1965. It was a more innocent and glamorous time of travel, when passengers dressed formally, smoking was permitted, and captains allowed in-flight visits to the cockpit. But there was another side to her profession. It was also hard and often dangerous work. In this historic airline memoir, Bobbi shares... Behind the Smile During the Glamour Years of Aviation
