Description :

PDF-20663 | In the early 1960s, Lee Iacocca—then director of the Ford division at Ford Motor Company—convinced Henry Ford II to produce a sporty four-seat car aimed at the emerging youth market. That car, essentially a reconfigured and re-skinned Falcon economy car, became the Ford Mustang, and it changed the automotive world like no other car before or since. In Mustang: Fifty Years, acclaimed author Donald Farr tells the story of the Mustang's creation and its impact on the automotive world. Mustang: Fifty Years: Celebrating America's Only True Pony Car
