Description :

PDF-4168d | A photographic tribute to the breakthrough F unit.

Examine the diesel locomotive that essentially ran steam engines out of operation! Between the end of World War II and the 1960s, F units were the primary freight and passenger haulers for railroads all across the country. Rarely seen vintage photos from the David P. Morgan Memorial Library show F units hard at work during this period. *Features a... F Units: The Diesels That Did It (Golden Years of Railroading)
